SENATOR SIMPSON: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. I think this is very important. Everybody should pay....

PRESIDENT: Could we have your attention to Senator Simpson please.

SENATOR SIMPSON: We set up.... There was an emergency situation. We set up sort of a canvassing committee. We decided that we should cover the problem. It was sort of started by a letter that came from a gentlemen in Omaha, I believe. In looking it over we thought it should be carried on. So we had some exhibits to go by. The committee sort of took a poll around the Legislature and assorted membership, and decided by a very narrow margin that Senator Mahoney should get a rug to cover his head. We had to pick one out of six. Number four one, I don't think there's any significance in number four except that it's sort of a conservative looking hairpiece. Very close second, amazingly, was another one that looked rather conservative except that it was all white. I think people look at him some as a young man and some as an old man. I'll turn this report over to Senator Mahoney and hope that he'll follow the very good wishes of the people who have so diligently worked to get this picked out for him.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator Simpson. Your committee has done an outstanding job with a hairy situation.
